

Work plan 2010 G-I-N Emergency Care Community

This work plan is based on the objectives stated in the GIN EC Community Terms of Reference

Objective 1

Provide a 'virtual' space for the sharing of resources, tools and knowledge that supports application of guidelines.

Activity	Outcome	Timeframe
Explore models that can be used to assist in localising guideline recommendations	Draft framework developed	December 2010

Objective 2

Undertake specific small-scale projects that could relate to guideline appraisal, implementation, dissemination or usability.

Activity	Outcome	Timeframe
Develop proposal for ICEM conference to provide a 2hr workshop session that focuses on the role of guidelines in the emergency care setting and implementation of recommendations local contexts	Delivery of workshop session with speakers from the GIN EC Community	June 2010

Objective 3

Provide the membership with access to both clinical knowledge and expertise in guideline development and implementation

Activity	Outcome	Timeframe
Promotion of the 2010 GIN Conference to the Emergency Community	Strong representation of Emergency Care abstracts submitted	August 2010

Objective 4

Provide a 'virtual' space for the sharing of resources, tools and knowledge that supports application of guidelines.

Activity	Outcome	Timeframe
Work with GIN Exec Officer to ensure the GIN EC Community web page is current and active	Current and active webpage to engage the community and draw new membership from the emergency care sector	Ongoing

Title:	Work plan G-I-N Emergency Care Community
Prepared:	18 th December 2009
Prepared by:	Sue Huckson