

Biography – Dr Zeinab Elsayed

Dr Zeinab Elsayed is a graduate of Ain Shams University (ASU), Faculty of Medicine in Cairo, Egypt. She completed her Residency Program at the Department of Clinical Oncology, ASU. She obtained both a MSC and Doctorate degree from the same University. Dr Elsayed also obtained a MSc in Advanced Oncology from Ulm University, Germany. At present she is appointed as Professor at Department of Clinical Oncology, ASU. She is the Postgraduate Studies Quality Improvement Coordinator at the same Department and member of Measurement and Evaluation Center at Faculty of Medicine ASU. She is also a member of Egyptian Ministry of Health Oncology Scientific Committee.

Research Interest

- Head and Neck Cancer, Adult Sarcomas, Quality of Life in cancer patients
- Medical Education and Research Ethics in Developing Countries